

In response to the rapidly changing news regarding the COVID-19 pandemic, Weaverland Valley Authority is temporarily modifying some of the ways business is conducted. During this time, the Authority continues to be committed to providing the community with exceptional service. This action was taken to avoid personal contact in an effort to keep both the staff and the residents healthy.

Our operations staff is still available for emergency situations by calling 717-355-2555.

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY WE WILL BE CLOSING OUR OFFICES TO THE PUBLIC TO LIMIT PERSONAL CONTACT. Staff will continue to be available during normal business hours, Monday-Thursday 8:00 am- 4:30 pm and Friday 8:00 am – 12:00 pm via phone or e-mail to answer any questions or conduct routine business. The Authority's office phone number is 717-354-5593 ext. 29 or ext. 25 and general email is office@weaverlandvalleyauthority.org.

In-person payment of all utility bills will not be accepted. Payments must be mailed or placed in the drop box located at the east entrance of the building (single door). Payments can also be made via our online bill payment platform located on the Authority's website www.weaverlandvalleyauthority.org.

The staff and elected officials will monitor the recommendations and guidance of federal, state and county officials regarding meeting cancellations or service charges. We will also be monitoring updates from health professionals throughout this challenging time.

We appreciate your patience and understanding of the Authority's efforts to minimize the disruption of service and attempts to maximize the health and safety of all, so that we can continue to fulfill our obligations to the citizens we serve.
